SOUTH PLAINS COLLEGE IMPROVES EACH STUDENT'S LIFE

I. GENERAL COURSE INFORMATION

- A. Course Description. Prerequisite: Approval of program advisor. This course is a learning experience that allows students to apply broad knowledge of the accounting profession through discipline specific projects involving the integration of individuals and teams performing activities to simulate workplace situations.
- B. Course Learning Outcomes. The student will demonstrate completion of the accounting cycle for a service and merchandising business; demonstrate computer usage skills related to accounting applications in business; prepare financial reports and communicate those findings in written and oral form; solve complex accounting issues by applying analysis skills to business situations; and participate in research and discussion on accounting issues, trends, and/or situations.
- C. Course Competencies. The capstone course is a finishing course for Accounting Associate majors and needs to be completed in the last semester of the students program before graduation. Approval of the program advisor is necessary to register for the course. A minimum grade of "D" is required to pass ACNT 2302.
- D. Academic Integrity. It is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own any work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension.
 - 1. Cheating: Dishonesty of any kind on examinations or on written assignments, illegal possession of examinations, the use of unauthorized notes during an examination, obtaining information during an examination from the textbook or from the examination paper of another student, assisting others to cheat, alteration of grade records, illegal entry or unauthorized presence in an office are examples of cheating. Complete honesty is required of the student in the presentation of any and all phases of course work. This applies to quizzes of whatever length as well as to final examinations, to daily reports and to term papers.

2. Plagiarism: Offering the work of another as one's own, without proper acknowledgment, is plagiarism; therefore, any student who fails to give credit for quotations or essentially identical expression of material taken from books, encyclopedias, magazines and other reference works, or from the themes, reports or other writings of a fellow student, is guilty of plagiarism.

Dishonesty in any form in this class will result in immediate dismissal with an F as the final grade.

- E. SCANS and Foundation Skills. The Secretary's Commission on Achieving Necessary Skills (SCANS) was appointed by the Secretary of Labor to determine the skills that young people need to succeed in the world of work. The purpose is to encourage a high-performance economy characterized by high-skill, high-wage employment. Eleven skill areas were identified by the Commission. The Foundation Skills involve reading, writing, and mathematics. The other eight Areas refer to workplace skills, such as working with clients and co-workers. Accounting Capstone includes the following SCANS competencies:
