COURSE INFORMATION

- COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course provides skill development in practical applications which emphasize the improvement of writing skills necessary for effective business communications.
  - LEARNING OUTCOMES: After successfully completing this course, the student should be able to apply appropriate communications theory in the writing of business letters, memos, e-mails, texts, and other business documents. Each student should also be more at ease and knowledgeable about the job-hunting process after he/she watches online mock interviews and hears lectures from various experts in the personnel field.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

- As an online class, students must access the course on a regular basis.
- Students are advised to login Blackboard on a daily basis in order check the semester schedule, e-mail, and announcements within Blackboard for any updated information.
- A student who does not meet the course requirements as stated and does not officially withdraw from that course by the official census date of the semester, will not be administratively withdrawn from this course.

It is the responsibility of the student to initiate the process to withdraw from this course.

FINAL DROP DATE: April 25, 2024

FINAL DROP DATE: April 25, 2024

- ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: It is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own any work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension.
- PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING: Students are expected to do their own work on all projects, quizzes, assignments, examinations, and papers. Failure to comply with this policy will result in an F for the assignment and can result in an F for the course if circumstances warrant.
  - ❖ Plagiarism violations include, but are not limited to, the following:
    1. Turning in a paper that has been purchased, borrowed, or downloaded from another student, an online term paper site, or a mail-order term paper mill;
    2. Cutting and pasting together information from books, articles, other papers, or online sites without providing proper documentation;
    3. Using direct quotations (three or more words) from a source without showing them to be direct quotations and citing them; or
    4. Missing in-text citations.

- ❖ Cheating violations include, but are not limited to, the following:
  1. Obtaining an examination by stealing or collusion;
  2. Discovering the content of an examination before it is given;
  3. Using an unauthorized source of information (notes, textbook, text messaging, internet, apps) during an examination, quiz, or homework assignment;
  4. Entering an office or building to obtain an unfair advantage;
  5. Taking an examination for another;
  6. Altering grade records;
  7. Copying another's work during an examination or on a homework assignment;
  8. Rewriting another student's work in Peer Editing so that the writing is no longer the original student's;
  9. Taking pictures of a test, test answers, or someone else's paper.

An "F" may be assigned to a student in the case of academic dishonesty and/or plagiarism at the discretion of the instructor, as clearly defined in the course syllabus, due to the severity of the student's actions and disregard for the learning objectives of the course.

- STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT POLICY: Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct that disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.
- INTERNET/TECHNICAL PROBLEMS/SUPPORT: If you are having computer problems, please start with the Help link on your Blackboard homepage. It is your responsibility to have a backup plan if your computer/WIFI goes down. Do not wait until it is a crisis situation. Do not wait until the last minute to turn assignments in, or you may have problems! Make sure you finish your Cengage assignments in a timely manner and DO NOT wait until the last minute!
